NEWS ON THE POP UP FRONT:

After our initial excitement regarding Evitovonni in the Borough we had to suffer great disappointment at being told this was not available as it was being sold. Our next option was another shop in The Lion and Lamb but that also fell by the wayside as a tenant was found by the Agents. Our latest possible venture is a shop in the Borough near the Bush Hotel, but that also is in the air and by no means definite due to the complicated permissions required from the huge conglomerate that owns it. We will just have to wait and see and swallow our disappointment if it does not come off this year despite all the hard work by our committee member Jill Ferguson. We will let you know as soon as we hear.

Christmas Party and AGM

Our Christmas Party takes place on the 24th November after the AGM. The AGM will start at 7pm and the Christmas Party at 7.30pm. After scrutinising figures from past exhibitions and rising costs we have been informed by our accountant that things will have to change and raising the subscription charge and also the commission on sales from our exhibitions may be a solution so discussions regarding this will be the main topic of conversation. Hopefully the party afterwards will alleviate any misery caused by these changes. At the AGM all the officers have to retire and be re-elected if they are willing to stand, so anyone interested in being part of the core people steering the Farnham Art Society to greater glory should ensure they make contact with the Hon. Secretary before the event using the form in this newsletter. At this present time the post of Newsletter Editor will be open for election.
